

What we do with your information

When we treat or care for you, we record information about you

We keep your records on computer or on paper

We keep your information secure and confidential

We share your information with other people who need to treat or care for you

We share your information when you ask us to

When we ask you for feedback

When the law tells us to

When we have special permission

To find out more visit www.airedale-trust.nhs.uk or ring 01535 294832