

Smoking & Passive Smoking in Pregnancy

Did you know?

Smoking & Passive Smoking in Pregnancy

Did you know?

Significantly increases the risks of:-

- Miscarriage
- Stillbirth
- Babies born with lower birthweights
- Premature birth
- Placental abruption
- Eclampsia
- Birth abnormalities – including heart defects
- Sudden infant death (SIDS)
- Ongoing health problems for children – including asthma

Significantly increases the risks of:-

- Miscarriage
- Stillbirth
- Babies born with lower birthweights
- Premature birth
- Placental abruption
- Eclampsia
- Birth abnormalities – including heart defects
- Sudden infant death (SIDS)
- Ongoing health problems for children – including asthma

Did you know?

Stopping smoking at any time in pregnancy is better for you and better for your baby

Stopping smoking in early pregnancy can almost entirely prevent the above risks

Did you know?

Stopping smoking at any time in pregnancy is better for you and better for your baby

Stopping smoking in early pregnancy can almost entirely prevent the above risks

For support with stopping smoking and staying Smoke free, please speak to your midwife.

For support with stopping smoking and staying smoke free, please speak to your midwife.

For more information please see details of our stop smoking services and free
NHS app.

For more information please
see details of our stop
smoking services and free
NHS app.

mylivingwell.co.uk/smoking
(Bradford/Keighley)

mylivingwell.co.uk/smoking
(Bradford/Keighley)

Living Well

Smokefree

stop.smoking@northyorks.gov.uk
(North Yorkshire)

www.quitsquad.nhs.uk
(Lancashire)

Download the free NHS Smoke free
app

Living Well

Smokefree

stop.smoking@northyorks.gov.uk
(North Yorkshire)

www.quitsquad.nhs.uk
(Lancashire)

Download the free NHS Smoke free
app

