Airedale
NHS Foundation Trust

Keeping your Information safe

We keep records about you and your health to help us treat you.

We ensure these are kept safe and private. Airedale NHS Foundation Trust are responsible for these records.

Information includes:

• Name, Age, where you live and other general information.

Special Category (Sensitive) information such as:

- Medical History
- Current treatment
- And other important things about to you to help us

We use your personal information to carry out our task as a healthcare provider (GDPR Article 6 - (e)) and to provide you with healthcare (GDPR - Article 9(h))

Sharing information

We sometimes need to share your information.

Such as to another doctor like a GP. Who will also keep it safe.

This is done securely and we usually tell you.

Keeping your Information safe

Contact Details:

Data Protection Officer: l·yƘăŦűΦŘl·űl·LJ№2üŜŎűλ2y2ŦŦλŎŜ№ 𝕏 yƘăΦyŜű

www.l·λ№ŜŘl·fŜπűŃdzăű.nhs.uk

We keep your information for as long as required under NHS guidelines called the records management code of

If you want to look at your records, have questions about them, or exercise your rights, please ask us and we can help.

For more information, please ask a member of staff or visit our website.